Press Release

Corey Williams Joins Citizens Bank & Trust as Senior Lender

Guntersville, Ala | April 8, 2019

Corey Williams Joins Citizens Bank & Trust as Senior Lender

Citizens Bank & Trust is pleased to announce its recent hire of Corey Williams, who joins the Citizens team as Senior Lender and Executive Vice President of the Bank. Williams will work out of the headquarters office in Guntersville and will lead the Bank's effort in growing its loan portfolio and deposit relationships in addition to managing, directly and indirectly, all Citizens Bank & Trust lenders.

More About Corey Williams

Williams has worked in banking for 24 years and earned a degree in Finance from the University of Alabama. He is an Arab native, AHS graduate, and began his career as a management trainee in Guntersville. His most recent position was a role as the Regional President for People Bank of Alabama in Marshall and Blount counties. Williams has worked in the banking industry in many capacities and in most of the North Central Alabama. He has served on several local community boards, including United Way of Marshall County, for which he is also a Past Chairman. Williams is a long-time member of the Rotary Club, previously serving in Cullman and currently in Arab. He is married to the former Corinne Gibbs of Cullman, and they have two children, Eli (9) and Rosalind (5).

“We are truly pleased to have Corey join us as our new Senior Lender,” said Charlie Williams, President/CEO of Citizens Bank & Trust. “His leadership and experience add great value to our team as we continue to work to grow our Bank, and engage in our communities.”
